Dedication

Dedication of this book goes to the eloquent, beautiful, loving, caring, and compassionate mother of mine, Ethel Bernice Reeves. The mental and spiritual ability to create this book comes from mother's loving presence and teachings throughout my life. She taught me numerous survival techniques in this fallen world. Unfortunately, cancer took her life at the young age of 58. However, her spirit lives on forever in our hearts and minds. She is with the Lord now and is safe eternally.

I have taken all of the great things that she has taught me and will share her remarkable teachings with the world. Without mother, this book would not be possible to write. Thank you mother for keeping all your children and friends strong throughout our lives; we will always love you.

In addition, I would like to dedicate this book to my three children and grandson; Larry Jr., Stephen, Nefertiti, and Jordan. Always remember to do your best, and no matter how hard life can get, never give up.

To all of the friends and many supporters, thank you sincerely. Without your love, respect and support, this book would not be possible. Many people have helped with this book and your input and comments were extremely helpful. In addition, I should thank all of the doubters and negative people that did not believe in this book or the project. It has allowed me to see what God can do with a broken man.

Despite all the hard trials and test, God has always been very close by. Forever, I will be grateful to God. Thank you for loving and teaching me beyond the perceptions and expectations of man. You have given mercy beyond the dissenters and judgment from people throughout my life.

Foreword

Life can do a number on the most seasoned Christians. Life can test your faith on a daily basis. Within this book, you will find a vast amount of short poems and writings of Spiritual information. This information is to fortify your faith, belief, and understanding of problems that we all face in life.

This book will teach you how to have patience, and understand that all things work for good for those that love God. It is imperative that during the process in which we are tested we continue to be strong. With faith and understanding, we are able to overcome situations that will make others break. If we are true believers, we must always trust God even when our eyes cannot see nor understand the issues at hand.

I trust that this book will be a constant companion to refer back to throughout your struggles and challenges in life. I am thankful to be able to share this spiritual information with you because God has shared the information with me. Without God, there would be nothing for me to tell or share with you. Come on a journey in search of wisdom, understanding, and an ever-increasing faith in the Word that God has given to us. Let us get started.

About The Author

Larry Reeves was born in Boston, Massachusetts on April 16th of 1974. His Mother was Ethel Bernice Reeves and Father was Larry Sr. He grew up in the inner city with his 3 sisters and younger brother. Larry faced many challenges in many areas of his life at an early age. Larry's neighborhood was rampant with crime and violence. Larry learned how to stand up and fight back against the many forces that tried to destroy him. Most importantly, Larry's mother taught him how to develop a relationship with God and how to pray.

While Larry was in elementary school, the teacher retained Larry after school and called him a class clown. He repeated the second grade. This had a profound effect on his attitude toward school. When he was in the fifth grade, he attained the honor roll for each semester of school. This motivated Larry and he learned that the right teacher could help you get to the next level. After the sixth grade graduation, he went to another school, and was in the seventh grade. Unfortunately, he faced retention again in the seventh grade. At that time, Larry lost his interest in school. Therefore, he dropped out.

At the age of 15, Larry was on the wrong road in life. He was arrested and placed in a juvenile detention home, for selling drugs. While there, he learned that he had to change his attitude and perception about life. At this home, Larry learned that he did not like being detained. However, God used all the trials in his life to make a change for the future. While in the detention center, Larry met a young man who was in the juvenile detention center with him. He was disabled and suffered from mental illness. However, he was extremely intelligent on various issues, topics and subjects. He inspired Larry to become educated and take school, studying, and education seriously.

When Larry was in the juvenile detention he got on his knees and prayed to God. He said, "Lord if you ever get me out of here I will never come back." Then Larry developed a thirst for knowledge and education. He began by reading various types of books. He also started learning multiple subjects and seeking knowledge and understanding. The more he read, the more God increased his knowledge in many areas of his life. Larry cherishes his relationship with God, and He will never forget God's presence in his life. God turned all the bad things into blessings because of his love, mercy, grace, and purpose for his life.

At the age of 18, Larry realized how important it was to have a GED or High School Diploma. Therefore, he enrolled at Roxbury Community College to attain his GED. Larry received his GED on his first try. From there, Larry enrolled in correspondence courses of varying subjects. He was able to learn more on his own by reading and studying at home without pressure from the environment or the pressure from the teacher. He learned many subjects including Law, Business, Electronics, Taxes, Computers and many other subjects.

Larry realized that God's protection love and mercy is better than the strongest man or the best fighting technique. Larry's older sisters helped him, along with some of his uncles.

Larry's relationship with his father has always been strained and hurtful. Larry felt abandoned, unloved, and felt that he was more of a burden on his father than a blessing. This emotional discourse has affected Larry for his entire life until his Aneurism.

When Larry almost died several times from health problems, he discovered it was time to find the purpose for His life. He learned that even when you do not have a father present and your loving mother has passed away, God is always there. He learned that when your brothers and sisters do not care or respect you, God is always there. These have been some of the toughest but most beneficial challenges to Larry's life. Through growing and understanding, Larry was able to take the troubles of his life and turn it into a testimony. Larry was always a very intelligent young man but struggled in life.

However, God gave Larry a spiritual gift of discernment and a clear vision of how to accomplish things. God's love, mercy, and favor have been on Larry since he was in his mother's womb. Larry is dedicated to giving back to God his life force. He remembered to show appreciation and thanks for God's amazing love. After Larry almost died several times in one year, he wanted to create a free website that would inspire motivate encourage and inspire God's children.

Through his struggles and test by God, he has matured spiritually. It has given him a strategy for encouraging people through words. Now they are available for the world to see at www.inspirationsbylarry.com. God is good no matter what you see or feel. His love and mercy is amazing. He is always on time. Larry and his father do not speak. Nonetheless, Larry has learned important factors in life. We must have love, respect, and acknowledgement of the true God. Everything after that is secondary. We must love God when people do not care for us. God is love. That is the best feeling a human can ever experience.

Special Thanks

First, we would like to thank God to be able to share this great information to the people. In addition, primarily I would like to thank my Mother Ethel Bernice Reeves, Ara Lacanglacang, D'Anthony Jonzun, Ignacio Brown, Cassandra Reeves Davis, Kristina Reeves Barber, Maurice Brown, Chyna Chester, Ella Reeves, Dychell Reeves, Jermaine Reeves, Amara Reeves, Jacqueline and Lizzy Reeves and the entire Reeves Family, Calvin, and Elvin Johnson. Mary Kistler, Clyde Bo Nesbit, Kelley Cash, Rob, Vivian, Teddy Calero, Dr William Kuhn, Pat Pierscinski, Pastor Gene Dolash, Deltona Alliance Church - Deltona, Florida Deltona Christian Church, Pine Ridge Fellowship Church - Deltona, Florida, Morning Baptist Church - Mattapan, Massachusetts, Carlos and family, Dale Ramsey, Tony Rambert, Dr. James Bentley, Bob Gray. To all my wonderful nieces and nephews, Tai Speller Reeves, Solomon Reeves Davis, Michael Reeves, Jon-Jordan Reeves Davis, Cheyenne King-Cannon, Stephen Reeves Jr, Christian Reeves, Jaden Reeves Barber, Noah Reeves, Jasmine Brown, God bless you all. Remember to do your best in all your tasks and tests in life.

The list might appear small. However, all of the individuals mentioned have played an instrumental role in preserving my life. Ultimately, God gets the glory and praise for sparing our lives. Nevertheless, He used many individuals to show me that He cares.

God Knows What He Is Doing

God knows what he is doing. As humans, we ask the question of ‘why’ over and over again. However, I am here to let you know that God knows what he is doing in his children’s lives. He has created everything with a masterful plan. He has given us dominion over the animals and earth with its entire splendor. He has also given us the choice of thought whereas we could choose life or death. Therefore, we really should be asking ourselves all the questions. Such as, why is man so stubborn and evil? Man is not God, and God is not a man. We have dominion but we do not have total control.

God looks past the flaws of man, and looks into the heart of man.

God still loves us all, Despite imperfections, foolish acts, and bad decisions. God still loves us, holding nothing over our heads, when we repent and admit our faults. As the devil accuses us, God ignores his accusations. God is not like man. His love, mercy and grace endures forever. So, forget about what man says about you. Be concerned about how God feels about you. Bottom line; God is love.

Man wants to take credit for everything that he has not done. However, God is the reason we walk, talk, we live, we breathe, we see, we love, and we feel. Everything we do good is from God. Man and the enemy have tried to discredit God and take credit for what no man or the enemy can or would do. God is the reason we live.

God is the only one who will love you unconditionally. Only God can redeem you from despair. When your heart is hurting, words mean little. However, God can turn suffering into success. Only God can turn pain into prosperity. So if you are tired of the same results from doing things yourself. It is time to ask God for all your needs and wants. He will bless accordingly. Take time out your busy schedule for he is never to busy for you.

Unnecessary Battles

Why would you wage war against your family members? Why would you consume enormous amounts of energy for egotistical foolishness? It is time to end the childish battles within your inner circle. Learn how to work together, understand, and respect each other. Then you will be able to prosper in your endeavors in life.

Precious Time

Time is more precious than gold. What you do with your time will determine what you will have in your life. Utilize your time wisely, because lost time can never be regained.

Without Expectation

Without communication, there should be no expectation. You must talk to people in order to get things done. If you isolate yourself from people, you may deny yourself opportunities

Appreciate Life

Take time to enjoy the day. Do not spend the day griping and complaining about what you do not have, or what you want. Take the time and be thankful for what you do have. Be thankful for your family and a roof over your head. Be thankful for that car to drive, even if it is low on gas. If we fully trust God, we should not worry about tomorrow because He is always on time to meet our daily needs.

Without Understanding

Some people do not understand that their condemnation of you has nothing to do with how God feels about you. Their unfavorable perception is the total opposite of what God says you are. The point is that it does not matter what man thinks. It only matters what God thinks.

The Man Upstairs

If you have a problem that you cannot seem to figure out, its time talk to the Big Man Upstairs. If you are in a position that you just cannot get out of, talk to the Big Man Upstairs. We all face many hectic situations throughout our lives. Often we just cannot figure things out. When you cannot figure it out, that is the time you need to speak to the Big Man Upstairs. God can and will deliver you through the toughest obstacles in life.

Wisdom Speaks and Fools Talk

Bad Thoughts

When some friends and family members thought I was a loser and my life was finished, God let me know that he loved me. Before my birth, God always had my best interest. There was a time when some family and friends thought that I did not deserve anything because of my thought process. When I learned and matured, God blessed me in a tremendous way every time. When I was denied by many, God gave to me freely. Therefore, I am thankful that no matter what people said about me, God always has shown his love and concern for my well-being. For that, I am eternally grateful and loyal to him. God's love and mercy endure forever. The best has yet to come.

Loyalty Within

I would rather trust God and eat a can of beans everyday rather than serve the Devil and eat lobster, steak and shrimp.

Bad Foundation

If a man and woman will not respect each other, then they are bound in an unevenly yoked relationship.

Stop the Negativity

Sometimes a negative influence can be more powerful than love.

Balance From Within

You cannot get to peace until you change your heart. It takes spiritual growth and understanding.

Dirty Garments

Many men and women have covered their greatness with mud trying to fit in.

Moving Forward

Through the power of prayer, we can open doors that would be physically impossible to open.

Growing Internally & Externally

To receive and give love is a blessing.

Love Beyond Sex

When a couple can achieve intimacy of the mind, and spirit, then they will find that sex is much better.

Overcoming Challenges

The challenges of a man trouble his heart. However, with faith, honesty, and integrity he knows he has done his best.

You Have Wings

God is going to elevate those willing to fly.

Just a Thing

I know money is important. Nevertheless, sometimes it is better to have a good relationship over money. Money comes and goes but a good relationship can last a lifetime and is much more valuable than money. In the end, money is just a thing.

Forever Trusting

Even if I lived alone on the moon, I will trust God. I know He will always make a way for his children. Amongst the whispers and chatter of irrelevant talk, God is preparing you to stand tall. Through the struggle and mud of this world, he has clean garments for you. All the negative lies, thoughts and perceptions are now gone. In Jesus name, we pray. Amen.

Stay Clean

Those that throw mud will become filthy themselves. You cannot throw mud without it getting on you.

Mastering Time

Opportunity is like beauty, it only last so long.

Real Men Tell Real Stories.

Men seek a good Godly woman and you will find treasure. However, if you seek lust and pleasure first, you will find trash and trouble.

Stay Humble

So many people have a snobby attitude about their job and actually own nothing.

Born To Lead

I am a Natural born leader. If you expect me to follow you, keep dreaming. Let the leaders lead and the followers follow.

Covered by God

They tried to crush my inspiration with a negative perception and harsh judgment. They whispered comments of disdain and disrespect behind my back. However, I am thankful that with all my flaws, falls and bad decisions, God still loves and covers me. To be honest, that is what is most important to me in life. Know that some people will kiss you then kill you.

Perseverance

Resilience brings forth results. Isolation brings forth inspiration. Inspiration causes activation, which equals tangibility of dreams and the enjoyment of life once applied.

Operation Destiny

Never allow negative emotions from the past to hinder or block you from a brighter future. Adversity creates the fire for destiny.

Completing the Goals

The biggest difference between dreamers and doers is the simple act of finishing what you have started. Always finish what you start.

Never Give Up

Keep the faith. Utilize it. Better days are coming. You can make it through today.

Blessed Beyond Perception

- People hate when they know you are great. If they thought you had no potential they would not even mention you.
- I am sincerely thankful for the hedge of protection and favor God has put on my life.
- Your creativity will separate you from the best.
- I am thankful for the great gifts and talents that I have learned and inherited from both of my parents DNA.
- Sometimes your biggest doubters & haters will be the people closest to you.

Family

Some family members can be a bridge to your success. While other family members can attempt to be a barricade to your life. The true resilience of a man or woman can never be determined from an outer appearance or current position in life. Judgment condemns while destiny prevails. Tap into the best within yourself. Your best has nothing to do with anyone's perception of you. Move forward into a new life.

When a family is not willing to stay and work together during these tough economic times, then they will surely die as individuals, and the scavengers will eat their bones. Families are supposed to be a support platform and not a place to be torn down.

Some family members pretend to care about you at your funeral. However, when you were alive they treated you as if you were already dead to them.

People

Some people might have a beautiful smile, but they have a black heart. Some words are convincing and warm, but there is no truth in what they say.

Do not harden your heart or it will crumble. If you soften your approach, you will have longevity. It is time to start living in abundance instead of accepting and living in lack.

Through The Process

No longer will I be hurt or burdened by the lack of love from man. I will be rejuvenated and set free by the love and compassion from of God.

Character & Integrity

Being a millionaire does not matter. Where is your heart? How many people can you get to believe that God will bless you beyond your current circumstances? How many people do believe that God can, and will keep you protected? Do you believe beyond what your eyes can see?

God's Presence

- If it was not for God, I would have been dead a long time ago.
- The foundation of your words will be the foundation of your life.
- One test after the next but only the ones that persevere will reach success. Many men filled with corruption while others are blessed. Some will fall victim to temptation while others succumb to the stress. Stay strong and stay blessed.
- Unbelievably, your family is a collection of friends, haters, and enemies.

Where Am I

It is easy to get lost in the shadow of a relationship. This happens when both parties are not on the same page of respect and appreciation.

Moments in Life

Finding joy in this life is about treasuring the time and experience with your loved ones. We often lose precious people close to our hearts. So make a conscious decision to respect, treasure and enjoy the presence of your loved ones. Never forget the words of the experience.

Loyalty & Concern

In life, some people will be friendly to you for your position or possessions. However, others will despise you for your favor, potential, and possibilities.

Judgment condemns while destiny prevails. Tap into the best within you. Your best has nothing to do with anyone's perception of you. Move forward into a new life.

Still Standing

In this world, you will truly stand alone. Family, friends, and lovers will leave you. At your worst people will despise you. When you are at your best, people will praise you. The real test is to acknowledge that through faith, favor, and prayer you can overcome the worst challenges and setbacks this world has to offer.

The past contain references, the future holds possibilities. Faith and true love stays the same. People are conditional based on perception and circumstances. Life is precious, it is a blessing to live, and grow.

I have learned that when people treat you bad. It simply means that they are miserable and they are taking their bitterness out on you. Learn that it is not you. Do not worry about them because people with a life have no time to worry about others they do not like anyways.

Even in silence, you can learn. In an environment filled with noise, you are distracted and programmed by the noisemaker.

Mastering your emotions come from stability and balance. The devil and evil men and women strive to keep you unstable and off balance.

In the end, helping people has more value than gold. Selfish greedy men value gold but at the end lose it all and their soul.

Understanding

- Beauty externally does not equate to goodness internally. Some of the prettiest people externally are some of the ugliest people internally.
- Sometimes the greatest blessings come in the form of tragedy. I am not talking about death. I am talking about the death of bad relationships. You will never realize how blessed you are until you peel away the inventory of negativity.
- God's purpose and direction for me is greater than your perception of me. Many have predicted that I would not make it. Thirty years later and I am still standing by God's grace. So haters, it is not what you think. It is about what God knows about me. That is why I am still alive.
- We all live, we all die. We all laugh we all cry. We all suffer as life gets tougher. We all clash with our sisters and brothers. We have joy we have pain. Life is filled with sunshine and rain. No matter what happens keep standing.

- I believe that if men and women, 1. Got married. 2. Stopped shacking up and making babies out of wedlock; 3. Learn how to appreciate and respect each other, then we will be able to raise better stronger children that can survive in this evil world. Making babies and running out on your responsibility towards them is not good.

Work Together Prosper Together

- Most competition between family members is destructive and not constructive. If we work together, we can live better.
- The devil is a crafty manipulator. He will use family, friends, children and spouse against you. The only one he can't turn against you is God.
- Keep smiling, keep shining, and remain at peace no matter what is thrown at you. You will be able to overcome it. One door closes and God opens many more. Be ready.
- I have learned that life is not about being the smartest, strongest or toughest. It's about having trust and faith in the One who gave you life. You can't always trust your family or friends. However, you can always trust God.
- God has always delivered me from destruction, calamity and death. Through dreams, visions, and favor I am still here. Many don't understand, but I do. I thank God for loving and guiding me despite my flaws. He knows my heart.
- So many women and men are so nasty with money that their only destiny is eternal torture. Money comes and goes. Matters of the heart last forever.
- Some people say they will pray for you and don't even like you. All I need is genuine prayer and Gods pristine love. That's all I need.

Sometimes your closest friends will become your biggest enemies.

If you have lost everything you own, can you still stand? If you have lost everything that you love, will you still stand? God is the only love that will keep you standing and restore everything that has been lost.

God's love is the greatest thing you can ever experience in this life. It is beyond money in your pockets, beyond friends and family. God's love is what keeps us alive.

Life and death is within the power of the tongue and your actions. If you have been saved and spared from death, you have a special calling. Utilize it.

If you have children that don't listen, and/or they are running the streets doing the wrong things, the best method to help them is pray for them. Prayer is much more powerful and effective than punishment or pain. My mother prayed for me.

If your brother is down and he needs a rope, make sure you throw it to him, because you never know when you will need a rope thrown to you.

There is no love in words only. Love must be expressed through action.

The definition of love varies from heart to heart. Many will say they love you, and don't even like you.

A man and a woman on one accord is a great team. A family with true love and respect is the ultimate team. When there is too much discord, and selfishness, it becomes detrimental to the entire family. Wake up or die.

Generous hearts will always rise above the ways of the selfish. However, the generous may struggle and suffer at times. Nonetheless, their good deeds of their heart will eventually give them blessings. When the greedy and selfish fall they have no escape from their evil deeds.

Encourage those who are lost and hurting. Give freely to the homeless and needy. Give words of inspiration to those who need it the most. Life is not just about you, it is about us.

Pain

- We all hurt. We all suffer. We all trust the wrong people. When people hurt you, love yourself. When people try to undermine your character, keep standing. Life will get better when you let go.
- When a person walks out on you, don't look at it as a loss. It is a blessing in disguise. God knew they were not worth being included in your new life. Keep walking, keep smiling. You will see.
- You must paint the picture of your own life. Unfortunately, others will try to destroy your canvas.
- Being real will cost you fake friends. Being fake will get you more fake friends. I suggest to all my fellow soldiers and warriors: Keep moving forward no matter what you face.

When its time to reach your destiny, your spiritual family will be the vehicle. Blood family and close friends will flatten your tires

Opposition to your greatness will come in the form of family and friends. The destroyers of your destiny will come in the form of smiles and handshakes. The doubters of your promise will be on the same team.

Some of you were born with the trait to shut up. However, I was born with the strength to speak up. While you were raised and programmed to conform to society, I was charged to inform and warn the people of the world. Many interpret the truth as negative. But I feel the truth is imperative.

When a family sticks together they have strength and longevity. When they don't stick together, and don't support and hold each other up, eventually they will fall.

Anybody can be young and pretty. One day you will get old and ugly, and the only thing that will matter is how you treated people, when you were young and pretty.

The truth hurts, but it also kills. Those who speak the truth will be condemned, ostracized and ultimately killed. Examples are Jesus, John Kennedy, Martin Luther King, Malcolm X and thousands of others. We need to support the leaders of the truth and stop being blind sheep.

Americans buy lies and deception by the ton. However, they will not face or accept the truth of reality.

The same people you go out on limb for will not even climb the tree for you.

Remember no matter how the world tries to tear you apart. God can always put you back together. No matter how low you fall. God will always be there with you. God's love for his children is the greatest love you will ever experience.

There is always a group of people around you who are determined to tear you down. They wish to block, hinder you, or even kill you. They pretend to be your friend or someone who cares. The true reality is they are jealous and envious. Nonetheless, be careful whom you trust and allow around you.

When you release the anger you release a glow. When you give up the resentment you reactivate your anointing. When you listen to the voice of God and not the chatter of man, you find peace.

When you trust God, the bad times prepare you for the good times.

Anger is a spirit that will rob you of a fruitful life; it is a form of spiritual chains. You cannot release it on your own; you must pray and ask God to release it. Once the anger is released you will find peace

I didn't get to 40 on my own. If it was left to my own devices, I would have been dead between 12 and 18. The Lord had a plan for my life. That's why he protected and preserved me. That is why he prepared me. He has not given me great spiritual abilities for my own sake. He has given them to me for His glory to encourage and to help his children.

I share all this information to help those willing to listen. I am a teacher. God is the ultimate teacher. He shares with me and I share with his people. It is part of my life's mission. Whether you or I like it or not, I follow orders.

How can you expect God to build a new interior and Exterior without demolishing the old first?

Time may not be on your side. Nonetheless, God is. Your friends and family might not believe in you, but God does. Your current position might be laughed at. However, you are in the right place where God is going to bless and deliver you.

I must admit that in the past I have allowed hurt and pain to make me react negatively.

When it comes to your soul you cannot hide behind drugs. You cannot hide behind alcohol, money or pleasure. You can only find refuge under the wings of the Lord. I am Ethel Reeves' Son.

God told me to forgive those enemies and people that hurt me deeply. I said "but I can't trust "them". He said "trust Me".

In my Father's house I am always welcome. In my Father's house I'm always accepted and respected. In my Father's house, I am cherished and I am loved. Thank you for loving me Father.

Church

The church is a place that is supposed to nurture the people. The church is a place where you should be prayed for, inspired, and encouraged. The church is not a place for judgment, ridicule, mockery, or humiliation. Many people play church as a regiment and routine of false acceptance. The church has to change.

Mother

A mother's love is timeless; even after death. The love resonates in the air and in our hearts. You only get one mother. No one on earth will ever love you like her, Not your father, brother, sister, neither children nor spouse. I will always love my mother. She's my favorite girl.

Love yourself

Some people you nurture will let you die. The people you love will make you cry. Those you sacrifice for will not sacrifice for you. It is sad to know what some people will do. Some love is conditional while some affection is bought and superficial. The moral of the story; love you more than anyone else. However, when it is in your power to help you must do so.

Born

I was born with fire in my soul. Your watery perception will never diminish my fire. The air of experience, struggle and life has made my fire hotter than ever. My existence is not about a name, it is about a powerful spirit. I am a man not afraid to stand up against extremes and hardships; or the ferocious elements of the world. I cannot be silenced nor censored by negative people.

Spiritual warfare is no joke. Ghosts are not friendly like Casper. The dimension of the living is where you have the chance to make your choice.

- A good wife is not only a lover and friend. She is the rock of a man's life. To have a good wife is to be blessed.
- Many devilish people around you watch, whisper and report. They gain joy from your struggles and your troubles. They anticipate your fall not realizing there only two steps behind you.
- Some people say no new friends. I believe that new friends open up new experiences, possibilities, and opportunities. The fact of the matter is some old friends are not worth keeping. However, if you have friends that are loyal respectful and love you, they should be treasured.
- So many people sit in church every Sunday. With fresh suits, fresh clothes, fresh cologne. However, they reek of sin. Their hearts are filled with malice and jealousy. Their eyes issue judgment and hate. Their demeanor is that they are better than others are. They believe that God only loves them. They can't be further from the truth. Only God can judge, you don't own a crown.
- To all the haters and, self-appointed judges, you do not have to be perfect in order to be used by God. In fact he will choose from the lowly and pick from the former drug dealers, prostitutes, drunks, and murderers. God has forgiven People who have done terrible things. God is not like man, He is looking at the heart and not the flaws. We must understand that we all fall short. Take the log out of your eye first. Or better yet, keep talking; it's free promotion, thank you.

For everything you have lost, God is saying I have better for you. For everything you have been denied, God is saying I have better for you. Your biggest blessings come from your hardest test. Don't give up.

- Sometimes you have to lose what is worthless, in order to gain what is priceless...
- Hanging with snakes is an invitation for death.
- Being in the wrong place at the wrong time can cost you a lifetime.

Some people don't understand the concept of help because they are so selfish and judgmental.

Sometimes people try to push you away from what you have. They don't even realize they are pushing you to better.

Blood maybe thicker than water, but sometimes the water of friendship is stronger than blood.

Favor can get you into places where money could never get you.

Sometimes you don't need a dollar. Just faith and favor will open doors for you.

A great leader is nothing without a great a-team.

We have all been fools before. We all have said things that were hurtful, but when you realize it, a change can be made for the better. Unfortunately, that is how some people learn. How can you teach without experience? So when you focus on my faults you will always miss the mark. Let's look into the so-called judges closets and see what we find. Nobody is perfect. So stop whispering about the next man. Focus on yourself.

Don't let anybody steal your joy today. Put frustration and aggravation on the back burner. Enjoy life and the good people around you.

God is going to bring blessings to you. All you have to do is stand in the right place.

People call you crazy when they can't understand who you are or what you can do.

You might be going through some tough times; you might be experiencing some pain. I want to encourage you to a hold on to God's unchanging hand.

When someone or something has a blemish it does not mean that it cannot be removed.

Some of life's greatest lessons come in the form of humility and suffering.

As you climb the mountain of life, it will be tough and arduous. Many people will try to make you fall. Maintain your tenacity and keep climbing.

I would rather be a dreamer and die as opposed to being a laborer and barely live. For at least through my dreams I have lived. My life is my choice.

Sometimes the coldness from a few people, make you appreciate the warmth from others.

A relationship is never owned; It is only leased or rented.

Your faith is like a credit card with an unlimited balance.

Future Foundations

In order to maintain the foundation of existence, the next generation must be included.

Help and money is not the same thing. Help comes from the heart and money comes from the pocket.

The reason for the fighter fighting will determine the outcome of the fight.

God can give you redemption beyond man's comprehension.

Sometimes your greatest blessings can be disguised as a loss.

That thing you had and lost. What a blessing!

Your perception of me is not God's perception of me. Your condemnation of me only creates elevation from God. Your judgment of me only pushes me closer to my destiny. Only God has the final say over my life.

A man or woman can have a glow on them that far exceeds their current circumstances.

From a spiritual perspective after the pain comes promotion. After distress comes success, after the hurt comes healing. However, before you can have you must first believe.

Perspective

- In life you must have resilience over resistance, faith over the facts, and determination above problems. In addition to the aforementioned concepts you must have an understanding over disappointment.
- A brother is not always a friend; and a friend is not always a brother.
- Some people will switch up on you for a stick of butter.
- Family is very critical of you. Some are not there to help you up but, to knock you down.
- Your kingdom is within your DNA. No one can take that away from you
- God will give you a bridge beyond the perception of many. He will give you a foundation beyond comprehension, a platform that many will never understand. Get ready for its coming towards you now.
- A blockade in your life is really a stepping-stone.
- Greedy hearts get money. Good hearts get favor
- A father is supposed to be a teacher and not a torturer.

Men a woman worth having will not be easy to get

In life you can meet either your soul mate or your hell mate.

Sometimes people will not accept you, if you're not willing to be evil like them.

Never take her presence for granted. Never forget the importance of her touch. Honor and respect the love and compassion she gives to you. Finally, every day of your life, thank God for her standing by your side.

In order to have a true love, you must first be a friend.

Even people in relationships get lonely. Maybe their needs are not being met or they just are just tired of a person.

Give a woman the space she needs and give a man the respect he deserves.

Some of your greatest opposition and battles will come from within your household and same bloodline.

Strong bonds have been broken over petty disagreements.

With absolute power comes absolute responsibility

Relationships built on an unstable foundation will crumble.

Families suffer because the strongest pieces of the puzzle have been sold, disregarded, devalued and destroyed.

Love and respect equal value.

A man's greatest joy is having a good woman in his life.

Life is raining on you so that you may grow. Without the rain of life there is no growth.

To be loved. What a great feeling it is to be loved.

Always remember that after the rain, after the pain, the Sun will shine again. God is good all the time.

The bitter experiences of our lives bring forth the best fruits of knowledge and understanding.

Life is a Mission not a party

When you have favor in your life. All you have to do is show up and God will bless you.

The pain you experience will become stripes. Furthermore, you must stay strong and persevere through the process.

Racism is a waste of time. We are all God's children. It's not about the color of a man's skin; it is about what's in the heart.

Your spiritual family will treat you better than your blood relatives.

A true leader is not always smiling, but always prepared.

When fake friends see you are about to fall they distance themselves. However, real friends step in to hold you up.

The best lessons of my life have also been the most painful experiences.

Anxiety robs you of your peace. Stress robs you of your joy. Depression robs you of your life. Learn to live and be happy.

My mother taught me more than any man could ever teach me.

I am blessed beyond measure. I am blessed beyond money. I'm blessed with joy, peace and faith. I am comforted by knowing that my heavenly Father has my best interest at all times.

Some people will hate you when God chooses you but, many more will love and respect you.

Something about what God can do on the inside of you that will change your entire outside.

Sometimes you can be in the worst circumstances of your life and your spirit still is overfilled with joy.

No man can take credit for what God has done.

True friendship has no regard to color or race, only a heart of compassion and concern.

The depth and the dynamics of woman are deeper than that exterior package you see.

Some people try to control you by creating a foundation of fear. Don't fall for it.

What a man says with his mouth is different from what he really feels in his heart.

Life's most dynamic teacher is rejection.

Some snakes come with the best smiles. Be careful.

Some people don't expect you to shine. They only anticipate your demise; especially some family and so called friends.

Your strength will not come from your status but from your struggle.

Love requires action. If there is no action there is no love.

- I don't care where you come from God can use you. I don't care how many people despise you. God will choose you.
- God is going to bring out the best in you through your worst experiences in life. Stay faithful and trust Him.
- Even if it looks like I am losing; with God on my side I am always winning. I trust that.
- Your attitude and approach will determine the outcome of the most important matters that affect your life.
- A true leader is forged and not fabricated.

My gift cannot be diminished by your perception of me. Your eyes cannot see what God has in store for me. Your logic and my faith don't mix. God is unconventional in how He deals with His children. Stop focusing on others and focus on what God has given you.

God is willing to put new things in your hands. However, you refuse to let go of the past, which is holding up your blessings. Let go of the past and embrace the future. Open your heart and hands to receive the new.

Change first comes from within. I have learned that being sad and depressed long term is a choice. I was down for a while. However, God brought me through it all. I just had to make changes and sacrifices. The first step to overcoming depression is prayer. Secondly, change of diet and change your way of thinking about matters. It takes time. You can do it. Be blessed.

When a person has a negative perception of you, it means they are not happy with themselves. Don't worry about the fake judges. Only God can judge.

Never assume that you know everything. Remain humble, respectful, and learn from the best.

The wrong advice can destroy and disrupt your life and family. Don't listen to fools.

Sometimes the greatest blessings come in the form of tragedy. I am not talking about death. I am talking about death of bad relationships.

Some family members try to control you. If they can't control you they try to crush you.

Often excess can create a mess. Sometimes the smallest amount can have the biggest results.

Men, there are still good women out here. Women, there are still good men out here. We have to stop letting lust dictate with which we mate. I believe that a friendship and a spiritual connection first will make the relationship better and last.

Can you believe that you have options beyond your limitations? The limitations in your mind are masking the options that are present tangible. Learn to see past what is in front of you.

Rebellion against what is bad makes you a hero. Rebellion against what is good makes you a fool,

Your words will finance your future. Get your dictionary ready.

I love God so much that you can chop me up into a million pieces and I will still love and respect him.

God is always willing to grant a request. Are you willing to sacrifice, and listen?

Those that don't want to see you make it look down on you when you're in need. But those who love God will be activated to assist you in your endeavors.

The direction of your spirit will dictate your position in life. Find yourself.

God brings out your best through your worst circumstances. Be strong, keep the faith. Things are working out.

Life is not always about how you feel. It's about the mission.

God took away a curse and replaced it with treasure.

Your greatest investment into the world will be your children. Nothing else matters.

No matter how bad a man or woman treats me, God is always loving, kind, and good to me.

Understanding is the key to moving forward.

The greatest challenges of your life will create opportunity. Will you accept God's gift, or will you reject it?

Our heavenly Father is the reason we can enjoy life. Sometimes we can be too caught up in complaining about what we want and what we don't have. We need to be thankful for the day in this present time. And be thankful for what we currently have. Giving thanks is the beginning to enjoying life. Be blessed with favor beyond comprehension.

God wants men to love their wives. However, never forget about your mother and your daughter, because they will love you when your wife no longer does.

Sometimes you have more support than you realize. Acknowledge that everything you need is within your reach.

No matter what a man or woman might do to you. No matter what circumstances life might deal you. God is always good. We can't blame Him for the problems that men and Satan have caused in the world.

My piano has been the best girlfriend I ever had. She is always there for me when I need to express my emotions. She supports me through notes and tones of serenity, pain and peace. Wherever I want to go she is willing to follow. She never judges me for my flaws. She understands I am only a man. She is always there for me, in good and bad times. She is just one touch away. I love my piano. I thank God for the gift and ability to play it.

Discipline over pleasure equals where you want to be.

If you can get through the toughest darkest days of your life, you can also get to the day of fulfillment and peace. Stay true to yourself and God. Keep moving forward, and keep the faith. Know in your mind and spirit that things are working out.

What you build for yourself can be more valuable than anything someone else can offer you.

You can either live in the dimension of pity, or power. Choose now.

Words are the foundation of your life.

Misplaced love will hurt your heart, but it will teach you a valuable lesson in life.

The hands of the devious men will build foundations of hate which will crumble and be buried by the winds of the earth.

Miracle blockers come in all forms. They can't block the miracle itself. So what they try to do is block the essence of the miracle.

Sometimes people will not accept you, if you're not willing to be evil like them.

Lost friends equal new enemies.

Time has renewed. The old is regenerated. The past is just a page. The future looks and feels great. Mercy and favor heals the flaws and falls in life. Thank God for a reset button.

Resilience has more value than uncontrolled aggressive actions. Understanding leads to a brighter outcome compared to rage and anger. Patience faith and trust is what separates us from our troubles and circumstances. Always keep the faith and trust in God. Never trust man or the Devil. I am still alive because I trusted God.

God's love is greater than any position you can attain. His compassion has more value than money or any possessions. His compassion is what gives us a chance and opportunity. I suggest that you choose life beyond the physical. Choose life by choosing God.

Lessons

The best lessons of my life have also been the most painful experiences.

The Circle OF Cycle

Greedy and Selfish Men fight for position
Women sell their dignity and souls for attention
Families filled with hate, disrespect and dissention.
Evil women are not real they are fake.
While many men conspire, despise and hate.
They are surrounded by witches and snakes.
You can run, hide, and cry but you can't escape your fate.

Friends and Enemies

In life sometimes the people we think are our allies are not. And the people we thought were our enemies were not. Growth and discernment will distinguish the truth between the two.

Hidden

There is a hidden blessing in all of life's lessons.

Significance

In life it's not always about the big things in the pretty packages. We have to learn how to be appreciative for the small things that may seem insignificant to others, but have a great significance to you.

Will Have

Your hands may determine what you will have in life. However, your spirit will determine what you will accept in life.

Respect

Some people might not like you but, if you follow God, He will make them respect you.

Broken

Sometimes you have to be broken down through isolation and humility before you can reach the point of prosperity and appreciation.

Pretty Face

Sometimes a pretty face hides a dark heart.

After Next

One test after the other, only the best who persevere will reach success. Many men filled with corruption while others are blessed. Some will fall victim to temptation while others will succumb to the stress. Stay strong and stay blessed.

Foundations

The foundation of your words will be the foundation of your life.

One Day

One day your life's future assignment will be greater than your current frustrations and circumstances. Remain encouraged, humble, honest and patient.

Prosperity and Calamity

The energy you put out will eventually accumulate and bring a return of prosperity or calamity.

Pain

Pain processed properly equals promise and promotion. Pain processed incorrectly equals depression, hurt and suffering.

Opportunities

Sometimes you have to take the worst experiences of your life and turn them into the best opportunities for your life.

Lust Not Love

Some women don't want the man; they only want access to what he has. Some men don't want the woman they only want privilege to use her body. Be careful.

Revolution

Revolution of your spirit comes before the changing of your circumstances or environment.

No Longer

No longer will I be hurt or burdened by the lack of love from man. But I will be rejuvenated by the love and compassion from the love of God.

Lack

It's time to start living in abundance instead of accepting and living without.

Be Wise

Be careful whom you give your heart to because some people will treasure it, while others will trash it. Some people might have a beautiful smile but they have a black heart. Some men's words are convincing and warm, but there is no truth in what they say.

Tear Down

If a family is not willing to respect each other and work together as a team, then they will surely die as individuals, and the scavengers will eat their bones. Families are supposed to be a support foundation and not a place to be torn down. During these tough economic times there is no time to waver. Stick together.

The Best

The wrong advice can destroy and disrupt your life and family. Don't listen to fools.

Knowledge

Never assume you know everything. Do your best and learn from the best.

Freedom

Your words will liberate you from your circumstances.

Favor

Those that deny children of God deny God only rob themselves.

Understanding

How can you "I am free" when your mind is enslaved?

Envious

Everyone will not support your talents and gifts.

Student

Keep your energy and focus balanced. The winds come to blow you to your destination, do not fight it, use your wings and fly.

Judges

People try to use words and negative perception to destroy your balance. Their negative perception is not reality. It is only a reflection of them and they don't want to face it.

Position

The time we chase is the time we waste. The time we give is how we live. The difference between past, present and future is our position. We are in the doorway of our desires; the only thing that can stop you is doubt.

Promotion

Don't get mad at your haters. They are your biggest promoters.

Shall Be Known

The strength of a man or woman cannot be determined by an outer appearance. However, by his or her resilience, persistence, and commitment they shall be known.

Winning

Even if it looks like I am losing. With God on my side I am winning.

Seeds

The seeds you sow at the lowest point in your life will be very important for your future.

Ungrateful

Sometimes people closest to you can't appreciate who you are because they don't know themselves. So how can they know who you are?

Finding Importance

Sometimes you have to be in the dark so you can recognize and appreciate the light. Most experiences in life we can all learn valuable lessons.

Communication

Both men and women need to learn how to communicate beyond physical and sexual attraction.

Not So Pretty

A pretty face and nice body doesn't always equal a good heart. Some people are both pretty and evil.

One Day

One day during the great battle there will be a last call of exodus. There will be no time to go back or look back. You are either going or staying. The battle will be so great with precision timing. Your possessions of the old must stay where they are. No going in the closet, looking at shoes, looking for jewelry. Those that are left behind will be destroyed without mercy.

For the battle ahead is so great it needs coordination to get you out. There is no time to hold up the line. Nothing in that closet will be worth your life or soul. Follow orders and go. Don't be like famous celebrities. Remember what happened to Lot's wife. Even with God's greatness remember the timing and the precision of the Red Sea. The people of Moses had to follow orders to be saved. They didn't move when they wanted to. They moved when they were told to. The only way for them to be saved was in that instance of time was when they were told to move.

If you want to be saved you must follow God's plan and not your own. Your plan will have you lost within the walls of death and torment. The forces of evil are arming their soldiers with musical power. Tones and frequencies to stun, distract, and then destroy you.

It is Coming

My blessings have been delayed but not denied.
I am struggling with fatigue but still I believe
Pushing through disappointment and pain
Solving problems will equal progress through the strain
Understanding creates progress. Understanding
Creates growth, words produce healing.

Families must learn how to be supportive and work together in harmony. Without a new approach they will all be destroyed separately.

When you have a little and you help others it means a lot. However, if you have a lot and only help a little it means nothing.

Sometimes being unbalanced and hard-pressed brings out your best.
God used my worst experiences to bring out my best in my life.

Having a stable platform in an unstable environment can only come from God.

A man in God's eyes is a man who has been stripped down to nothing then built up as a new being.

The same people who talk about you when you are healthy and strong will be the same people talking about you when you're dead and gone.

Adversity creates the fire for your destiny.

Sometimes suffering is a setup for success. Pain is a passageway to promise and prosperity.
You can only lose when you give up.

No matter what negative comments that people make about, don't respond negatively.

Seek a good godly mate and you will find treasure. If you seek lust and pleasure you will only obtain trash.

The state of the family has been literally destroyed. With greed, selfishness lies, and deception, there is no respect or love amongst each other. With many bad attitudes, no one seems to care about their family anymore. Everyone is only concerned with themselves. Many people judge their family harshly and call them losers, when in fact they qualify as a loser also. It is time for families to act like family, respect, appreciate, encourage and support each other. Family was created for the purpose of love and respect. Let's get back to the true purpose of family.

When you are left for dead, you are never the same when you arise.

A conversation with mother is a platform for resolution of your problems.

Many have run from the giant, only to run into the arms of the Dragon. Allow God to fight your battles.

The same men who pat you on the back also plan for your demise.

Many rich people have become decrepit in their mind.

When a person's nose is too high in the air, they are unaware of where their feet are.

Water the rose of your spirit everyday.

Go ahead and throw stones at me. I will build a castle.

Ask God for big things. He is a big God.

When a woman or man unjustly devalues their mate, they have already shown their value.

Tough tests prove loyalty.

Trust God beyond the judgment and perception of others.

Often times we must endure more than we may have anticipated.

Trust God even when there is nothing left.

In order for a man or woman to love each other, they must first love themselves.
Your gifts talents and your divine purpose are your wealth.

I trust God beyond my circumstances, beyond the perception and negativity from people.

People judge you when they can't handle their own life.

Fake people flake.

Selfish people never give and always take.

When people don't believe in you, that's your strongest position.

Stress creates emotional disorder. You can't change the way people feel.

Most people don't care about your emotional baggage. They only care about how you make them feel.

It's so important to talk to God. It's not about money it's about placement.

All the prophets were stressed out about their mission.

People like to see you sad and hate to see you glad.

You can't find peace until you change your heart.

God is with you even when you are all alone.

Don't tell people your business. They will use it against you.

Every great man has also been a foolish man.

You have to take your strength back from the enemy.

What man can say he helped you more than God?

You cannot judge people based on color race or stereotypes, you will miss out on good people and opportunities.

Chasing smoke gets you nowhere.

Conversations with mother changed my life.

God is looking for some loyal people.

The World

They tried to crush my inspiration with judgment.

They whispered comments of disdain and disrespect against me.

Nonetheless, I am thankful that with all my flaws and bad decisions and hard falls, God covers me and always makes a way for me.

God will redeem those that he loves.

An unresolved spirit will cause you chaos in many areas of your life.

Are you ready for that spiritual promotion beyond yesterday's thoughts and conversations?

There is more value in a relationship than money and sex.

Sometimes your weakest position is your strongest position strategically.

When your family turns their back on you and, they treat you harshly. Know that you are now on the wings of angels bringing you to a new level of awareness and destination,

When you regain your strength don't go back to the one who took it. Let them admire you from a distance.

You cannot be denied anything, when it's already built into your DNA that you shall have.

Your pleasure will cause death slowly. Your anger will cause ruin quickly.

Our eyes activate our mouths; mouths activate hands, hands active opportunities.

A woman's ability to cause damage or destruction and emotional chaos is greater than her physical abilities will ever be.

- Women want to be loved and not ruled.
- Respected and not dominated.
- Men want to be loved and not used as a lifestyle ATM.
- Men want to be respected and not devalued.
- Sometimes you have to lose everything in order to find yourself.

Sometimes even when you do your best, things can cave in on you. When this happens don't give up. Restore, reset and rebuild stronger and better than before.

I am at a point where I can smile at rejection.
No longer can I be blocked by distractions.

I see things like never before. Great things for my life are already prepared and stored for me.

Some people have words that are convincing and warm, but there is no truth in what they speak.

The swipe of death has been initiated against you, by the devil using your family members.

He or she might love the pleasure associated with your body. However, they have no love in their heart for you.

It is sad that when people are at their lowest they are kicked the hardest.

Broken men will emerge stronger from the brokenness of despair.

The love from the heavenly Father is greater than the words of man.

The frequency of pain

Pain is a frequency within the body and spirit. When we are hurt it creates a frequency that oscillates through our body and soul. These frequencies are a deadly risk to our physical and spiritual existence. With prayer patience, understanding and time most internal pain can be managed,

- Conspiracy for corruption is a downfall.
- The Devil tries to dismantle progress and promise systematically.
- Don't let anger control you. Learn to control your anger.
- They made me stumble and fall but, God made me stronger.
- Many women and men are buried in resentment.

Even in isolation your creativity can change the world.

You have to learn how to trust God through the most trying circumstances.
Your excellence will bring presence.

A mother's smile takes all your troubles away. However, her frown can put chills in your body.

No matter what you do or say some people will always look at you in an unfavorable way.

Some people are just like spiders. They build their web of deception trapping many who are unaware of their true intentions.

Usually a spider will leave you alone when you are dead.

Being unevenly yoked diminishes the greater value.

Your sons will conquer kingdoms.

Your daughters will inherit treasures.

Your spirit was made to fly, and not be dragged on the ground.

Your woman is not attached to you. She is attached to your motivation.

The human heart is an amazing organ. It's unfortunate that people don't use it too often. They use a warped mindset and a negative perception to judge everything.

Your thought process is very different when you are hungry.

A man's forehead is a bio spiritual receiver.

It takes communication for acquisitions.

In my heart you no longer have a home. Now it's time for me to inherit my throne. Deceived no more set free from the lifeless words of a love no more.

She loved me enough to leave. However, she didn't care enough to stay.

We should be living a life with no fear.

God molds a new man from the fallen man.

Some people enjoy seeing you fall, and would never imagine helping you to stand. They are fueled by their own jealousy, fear and hate.

The past is surpassed by the new. There is a new bright light created in you.

A New Day

The dimensions of the past no longer have time in my space. It is time to receive the full blessings from God in its place. When they said they loved me. They showed me they didn't care. But when I look back on my life God was always there. Showing me favor and opening doors in critical times in my life. When I had little or no money God made a way. He touched the hearts of many to help me. All I had to do is pray and show up and He did the rest.

The inheritance is here presented before your hand. Will you receive it or will you wander in desolate lands? My son, it is here for you to do well. Receive this gift and never let your heart harden.

Even when you are hurt it doesn't mean God doesn't love you.

When people disregard you and abandon you, God is creating a circumstance for excellence in our lives. However, we have the choice to push through the test accompanied by angels. Or, we can fall down and remain in never ending misery.

Rage, hostility and uncontrolled anger will rob you of your future.

When some people stand by you it is not for you. They stand close for their own interest.

The wicked try to diminish the value of the righteous.
Many families try to devalue the calling on the favored.

Sometimes a little pain will tune your heart and mind up.

A powerful man can stand through many tests. However, sometimes even the strongest men cry privately and internally. Strength is always balanced with weakness, even when the weakness is not shown.

One day I will rise again. Although I might be down, I am not out.

Through the power of prayer we can open up doors that would normally be physically impossible to do.

Young Beautiful and Restless

After your youth, and pretty face has faded what will you do? When men no longer bow down to your every move, what will you do? It is time to get your mind and spirit right because that will last a lot longer than your youth and beauty.

My destiny is not bound by your perception.

When they were focusing on my failures God was preparing me for success. When they talked about my flaws God was developing me.

The dynamics of a man's mind is confirmed through his words or actions.

There is a big difference between love and passion.

Your closest confidant can possibly be your worst enemy.

She didn't answer because she didn't care.

Sometimes being backed in a corner is the best position for defense. This is true because you know your back is covered.

Demand your respect through the blood.

Women are not looking for love they are looking for stability.

Reality is the total opposite of what someone thinks.

Prayer activates actions. Faith opens doors no man can open. The spirit can accomplish much more than a physical body. Wisdom speaks but, do you listen? Knowledge speaks, can you hear it? Align your body with your spirit and you can accomplish your goals.

When a man loses all his strength, all he has is God.

Some people will throw all their stress on you. However, when you call them for a stick of butter they don't answer.

Sometimes I feel so strong and other times I feel so weak. However, I always feel great when I hear God speak.

Men, your performance in the bedroom will not determine if a woman stays or leaves. Nonetheless, your heart does.

What men think is love is actually control. What a woman thinks is love is actually stability.

The devil will give you a woman to tear you down. However, God will give you a woman to build you up.

You will find your glory in your life's story.

Love and lack of love will teach us if we are willing to listen and learn.

God had a plan for me that was right for my life it was my destiny

Has God been good to you despite the hardships, struggles and pain you have experienced? If you know in your spirit that God has always had plan your life, come on and sing a song to the Lord.

I want to thank God for having a plan for my life. When they said I was too crazy, God had a plan for me. When they said I was a school dropout, God had a plan for me. When my family cast me to the side, I didn't give up because I knew God had great things in store for me. So don't ever let anyone tell you that you can't make it or you are of no value. God's plan is the best plan. Through the tough process God will bring us to our destiny in His will and time.

The war of competition can never be won. What God has for one man might not be for another. The most important thing is to focus on personal and spiritual growth. You can never win a war of competition.

Never let them see you are down. Keep your faith and keep your sanity.

You might feel that life is running you into the ground. However, God has planted your feet deeper into the soil to be stronger in your testimony and life. When a seed is planted the roots must go deep into the ground to find strength and substance.

Be thankful for the Word. It brings life, healing, peace and love.

When you have done all you can do, trust God. When you thought of all you can think of, trust God. Lean not on your own understanding, but trust God.

Only God can put the pieces of a broken heart back together.

Many words will affect the heart.

No Matter

No matter who you are and what you have done God can redeem, clean, and restore you. He is not like man so He won't judge you like a man. He uses love to judge our heart and intent. A man will use hate to judge each other. God has faith in us to do the right thing. Can you imagine if God gave up on man as we give up on each other or ourselves?

Condemned by man, but loved by God.

If we are excited about man's technology, we can't even comprehend God's technology.

Some people cut all ties with you when they think you are finished. However, when they think you are doing very well they want to put their hooks into you.

A sexual commitment is far more taxing and stressful in the long-run than a friendship.

No matter what you think or see, God always has provisions and a plan for me.

Who you are can never be minimized by hateful family, fake friends or negative co-workers. Your value has been predetermined and the haters have no say

God brought me through the storm to a brighter day.

I was released from the hands of the dragon by Gods love, mercy and compassion.

God is compassionate and He knows the inner workings of man.

I am special in God's eyes.

There was a time when I was a bad boy. Not to bad for God. I was cast away. Family and friends didn't want to be bothered; but not to far away from God. God will bless you with words to use in life. The Lord gave me the words to change my life.

Sometimes I felt like time was running out, and the Spirit of the Lord said there is no time with God.

Pain will get your attention.

God is good. God is great all the time.

Singing is the language of love.

Even when we lose, we win. We win a new understanding of knowing that sometimes we win and sometimes we lose. We also learn that we could have prepared ourselves differently or better.

Through prayer you can speak to the Creator of the universe. Access it.

The heart can unlock doors that nothing else can open.

Lord, my life is in your hands to fulfill my destiny.

How did I make it? By struggling, living, learning, and suffering. By acknowledging, understanding; overcoming by faith, favor, grace, mercy, and the love of God and compassion from others. God gave me peace in the midst of the storm by listening to His spiritual direction.

God is the power that created a sun to grow plants and food for us to eat and oxygen for us to breathe. You tell me what man can or will do that? God is awesome. Tap into his power through prayer and faith. God bless.

The Troubles of Foolish Decisions

We all make mistakes and have regrets. We can learn and grow from each phase of experience in our lives. However, when we refuse to stop foolish behavior we will ultimately have much trouble through bad decisions. When challenged in life, don't react the wrong way.

Places of the world are stuck in time. So in order for you not to be stuck you have to keep moving in life so you aren't stuck in time.

Compassion

In your time of need, help someone. In your time of pain, speak healing to someone else. When you plant seeds of favor, favor shall come back to you.

God is power. If you are lonely, tired, weary, and weak, tap into the real power. We depend on man for everything and he always lets us down most of the time. God is the power that has the earth and other planets suspended in space. The power that has earth dangling by His mercy in outer space, protected from harm. He is the power that created everything that we see and don't see.

Time to rejoice and be glad

Our words create a spiritual cyclone that manifest itself in the physical as energy. So be careful of your words. They will govern every aspect of your life.

How can I overcome the struggle? Simply by continuing to stand.

I hear your voice in my heart showering me with love and compassion through words of concern. The love that was displayed fills my heart with joy and hope. I am thankful for you finding a place in my heart.

I am beautiful. Look into the mirror and tell yourself "I am beautiful". I don't care if you have extra weight, or physical and mental disabilities. Remember, you are beautiful no matter what.

God's love

My strength is nothing. I am only strong because of God's love for me. No man can stop God's love. No demon can stop God's love. The love transcends the physical and spiritual aspects of our being. I am alive because of God's love.

From generation to generation, God's love for man remains strong. If God didn't love us we would not be here on earth. It is too easy to destroy a weak man.

Your wealth is within your words. What you say will determine what you have.

When you ask some people for assistance you automatically lose their respect and friendship.

It is easy to get lost in the shadow of a relationship, when both parties are not on the same page.

Keep your spirit charged. We are now facing problems that physical and mental strength can solve. It takes spiritual strength to make it. So people, keep your spirit charged. Always know with God, all things are possible.

If there are no finances or food there are no friends. Where there is food and financing there are more than enough friends.

So you think I am crazy because I talk about God. I realize where my help and blessings come from. No man didn't do it, no family or friends; only God.

Watch what you complain about because your complaining might cause you to lose some things you need or love.

Fall

You wait for me to fall.
However, it's not your call
You anticipate for me to break
But it only shows you are fake
As they shake your hand they plan for your end.
Foes disguised as family and friends, watch your back.
Enemies disguised

Stand firm against the challenges in life. Although your circumstances are not good, the possibilities are great. Keep fighting, utilizing faith, and you will overcome the pitfalls in life.

Who are your enemies? Is it your closest friends? Is it your spouse? Or is it certain family members? It may be co-workers or members of your church. The answer is; only time will tell.

Words equal life, and the right words equal opportunities and power.

So when you use your words to speak. Speak things that aren't as they shall be.

So many problems you are facing; speak to them as they have already been fixed.

In the valley, God is talking to you. He will bring you out if you listen to His instruction.

In order to change our surroundings, we must first start from within. Focusing on the wrong thing can attract the wrong reaction.

If you never had a need then you would not know how much God is always on time.

Wait on God. He will see you through to the finish.

The challenges and troublesome experiences in your life will work out in your favor if you trust God.

True friends are ones that God sends to us. We may think someone is our friend, but they are actually our enemy. When it comes to friends, trust God.

Having a spiritual perspective in all areas in your life is mandatory. For without spiritual perspective to deal with today's problems you might constantly make the wrong decision.

Where is your mind? Is your mind in la la land; focused on things that are not for you? Or, are you focused on the things that are important and bring you joy and happiness? For where ever your mind is, your body will follow.

Watch out for the charm of the deceivers.

People call you crazy when they can't understand who you are or what you can do.

When you're with a woman your strength is for her. When your alone your strength is for you.

No matter what you are dealing with, don't panic. Understand that no matter the outcome of a situation, God can make it work out in your favor. Unforeseen occurrences beset us all but; God can work things out for you in all matters.

Time to find the power God has given you. Time to focus on the gifts God has given you. Time to magnify the talents God has given you.

I would rather be a dreamer and die than a slave laborer and barely live. For at least through my dreams I have lived.

Money was designed to make man dependent and to forget about God.

The raging river of destiny will either kill you or put you where you need to be.

From pain to empowered.

Through your tough times God is making you better, brighter and more effective for his purpose.

Even in the darkness there is light. God's light is the light that darkness cannot affect. However, only a few can see beyond the darkness

Although I have struggled, I am stronger. So many heartaches and pains, but now I am better. Disappointments and set backs, but now I am moving forward. Deceived and lied to, but now I see the truth.

Everyone around you is not who they pretend to be. We live in a world of pretenders.

It is easier for some to judge others harshly rather than to look at themselves in the mirror.

Everybody gets old. Your beauty will only last so long. Your character will last forever.

Sometimes your best position is your weakest position.

When you really need friends and family the most, many will disappear like a ghost.

In life, when most of your family and friends switch up on you, know that you are on the cusp of success. Stay strong and move forward toward a new better life.

So you want to be rich? Well you can't handle the wealth. Many people don't realize that too much money can destroy your life, when you are not responsible and understanding. Many would be in the clubs wasting it, buying things not needed. Between spending on lawyers, taxes, family and friends you would be broke again. So you want to be rich. Learn how to be thankful for what you have.

The Special Moments in Life

Finding joy in life is about treasuring the time and experiences with your loved ones. We often lose precious people close to our hearts instantly. So treasure the time and love of those memorable moments.

Sometimes there has to be chaos before there is control, suffering before success, and trial and error before understanding.

Just when they thought my life was over; God said wait. Even when they said I was a stupid failure; God said wait. Even when they said my mind was bad and my judgment was off; God said wait. All I had to do is pray against all the negative things coming towards me. God put a stop to it all. He is worthy to be praised.

Sometimes you have to grow up before you can get up.

Your mission is greater than your emotions.

You can crush me down to a grain of salt. Nonetheless, in my existence I will always love the Lord.

The Lord gives me a place to rest and a place to heal.

Sometimes you have to go to the lowest depths before you can soar to the next level.

Writings in the dark

If you always look at things in the physical you will always be limited in your options.

He does not condone the sin. He forgives it.

I have risen from the rubble, withstood chaos, destruction, ashes and trouble. Left for dead but still alive; abandoned, devalued and deprived of what was rightfully mine. Slandered, called a loser; but little did they know I am a king.

I know it might appear that all the odds are stacked against you. But remember God is against all odds. Keep standing during the battle and test. The victory is yours if you just believe.

Never equate a person's beauty with integrity or a good character.

Your ability to form good relationships with people will determine your opportunities in life.

Every negative perception of me has no value. I am not hindered nor controlled by your perception of my position, circumstances or experience.

The pain you experience will become stripes, only if you stay strong and persevere through the process.

He is good all the time; even when my mother died. Through so many tears I cried, He is still good to me.

Single mothers, don't feel so bad because the children's father isn't man enough to meet his responsibilities. Remember the best Father is God. He will take care of you and give you the spirit and skills to raise that son or daughter. You can and you will succeed as a single parent.

Life is not about complaining, it's about growth. The less we complain the more we grow.

When you reach the point of success, your focus should not be on proving wrong the people who didn't believe in you. The focus should be on thanking God for believing in you when friends and family didn't.

The harder something is to obtain or maintain, the greater the appreciation.

When you take your last breathe and you think of all the worldly possessions and desires you have attained. Then you realize it's all gone and you have not prepared a future for your soul.

In order for something to be tangible in your life it must be intangible first. Your thoughts produce results either good or bad. So when thinking, focus on improvement. Don't focus on foolishness and folly.

Sometimes God takes us through times of desperation so we can be an inspiration to the next generation.

Men of God are you aware that a Delilah pursues you. She seeks to tempt you for her will. Turn your eyes from her beauty or you will be captured and trapped. Utilize your wisdom, discernment and resist the tempting ways of Delilah.

If you take your plan and align it with your purpose you will prosper.

Without communication there should be no expectation

Food for the Spirit

Until the end of time I will always say thank you Father for loving me. I will say thank you Father for teaching me, and thank you Father for always believing in me.

Only God can deal with the pain on the inside. You are lost and so alone; you have neither peace nor rest in your soul. Take your heartache to God in prayer.

Only God can take the hurt and make it work for you, only God can heal the pain deep down inside. Only God can bring you from the darkness into the light. Only God can allow you to understand your life.

Many people who love you will hurt you.

Some people, who are the most judgmental, believe that they are in a secure position. However, when their positions change so does the judgment.

To be able to endure the hardships that make most fall. This is what champions are made to be able to go through more than the next. With God we are all champions.

Learn to master your composure.

Let your faith activate new opportunities and possibilities. You can and will have a better life.

Doubt and disbelief will only hinder your progress. Only as you keep moving forward you will get closer to your dreams and destiny. Step by step and day by day. Keep going and you will make it.

Songs are thoughts of the soul.

Don't allow depression to ruin your life.

We have forgotten the caretakers. Let us remember and respect those before us and assist them with their needs.

The spiritual life is not a job. It is a mission.

Sometimes we get so frustrated with people and situations. The people or situations may never change, but we can always change ourselves.

Young men need help. They need encouragement and support also. They need jobs, and need to be prepared for success. Reach out to young men. Help them with words so that their lives will be changed and saved.

Health is the jewel of success.

What we are seeking in a man or woman, we should be seeking in God.

Don't trade your treasures for lust.

All conversation is not good or productive conversation.

If we are lost in the rain, our Father will redeem us.

Be careful when you're going to have fun.
Anticipated fun might be definite trouble.

To break out of poverty is to break out of bad habits.

I can't do everything but, I can do something.

Wonderful Words

God's words will bring action; they will bring blessings and understanding. God's word will bring healing. God's word will effectuate His will.

Some people want you to fail and die. Some family members want you to give up and cry.

Struggle creates strength. Rejection causes a new direction. Hate creates new opportunities for favor. Ordinary is the starting point to becoming remarkable.

Some men give no sympathy but they expect it.

Some men have extreme greed and selfishness and expect others to give to them.

Some men have hearts that are filled with hate but expect others to love them.

The devil hates you but he wants you to love him.

Beautiful America

There is a place in America where White, Black, Hispanic, and many other races can live on the same street respectfully. They may have different cultures and still respect each other.

Mercy favor and grace is the story of my life. So many times I have failed. However, God always stayed close by my side.

Thoughts

Don't allow anger to rule your life. Anger is a powerful emotion that builds up within the soul. It manifests itself with destructive violence or harsh words. Don't focus on the anger. Focus on God; think about what He has done in your life.

One day I was so depressed I couldn't move from my bed. So I prayed and the spirit of the Lord came upon me to invigorate and reenergize my body and spirit.

When you get to a point where you can enjoy a meal at the same table as your enemy you have grown.

Hate has nothing to do with race. Race is an excuse to fuel the hate already within one's heart.

The frequencies of man are emitted in a frequency range unknown to man. We all emit energy that others are receptive to; our frequencies are either good or bad.

Don't allow depression and despair to dictate your destiny. Take control of your life today. Learn from the past and prepare for the future.

You have to talk to people to get things done. Isolate yourself from people and deny yourself opportunity.

To be defeated in spirit is to deny your physical body enjoyment of life. The time has come to rise and stand up. It is no longer the time to wander and want. It's time to get, and have what you need and desire, that which is good for you. Elevate your spirit and increase your opportunity.

God is not done with you yet. I know you are tired. I know you are weary, however you must keep going. For God's process is the best process. No man can deny you what God ultimately has for you.

Emotions put words in order; or cause chaos and disorder.

Life is about enduring, adjusting and adapting.

As I stand, I stand alone with no friends or no family. Only the spirit of God and His angels surround me for protection. As I journey through this life I will continue to stand. It's no doubt that I will get tired and weak. Nonetheless, with each victory I get stronger. I will face the next battle, and will never give up nor stop standing.

Control the influence and save the child.

Be careful with whom you lay down with, you might be creating a lifetime of hardship, trouble and pain. This is caused by one moment of pleasure.

Some people jump from one relationship to another seeking something they will never find.

Spirituality will propel you forward in life while rationality will keep you in one place.

Memories are pictures in our minds, of good and bad times. Times that made us laugh and times that made us cry. Time with our loved one's no longer here. They still are alive within our memories and the pictures are so vivid and clear. Although we cannot go back to the past, I can still view memories of time in my mind.

The value of soul searching

- Master your emotions or miss opportunities.
- Be careful of the deceit of women and the lies of men.
- I am hated by some men. However, I am loved and chosen by God.
- Relationships are contingent on current emotions. Change the emotions and the relationship will change drastically.

When you die, people will remember what you said with your mouth, and what you did with your hands. Whether it was good or bad, people will remember. They will also remember the love or hate that emanated from your heart.

The coldness of people

Look at how the world rejects a beggar. However, they run to give their money to entities that don't need it. Nonetheless, a poor woman gives her last dimes to help someone else. People are people; filled with love and hate. What kind of person are you?

The pressures of life that we think push us down, actually push us up. If you could just hold on, and trust God through the journey, you will have the victory in all battles.

In this life you must always be ready for spiritual warfare.

The old woman that had a little but really had a lot.

There was an old woman that was on a fixed income. However, she always gave what she could to those she met. People could never understand how she could do this. One day she told them as she gave her money away, that God had blessed her to give it away, and He always replenished what had been giving away.

When my mother died, my life was never be the same. I am so thankful for the time God has given to me with her. My mother was a great woman and she showed me what kind of heart a man should have. God Bless you Mother. RIP

I will always be a soldier for God no matter what happens.
My loyalty is firm. I want to thank you Father for loving me.

Freedom

I am free
No longer will you laugh at me.
How long will you unrightfully judge me?
I still stand through my treacherous challenges of pain and thorns in my side.
I have left the mess of this world and viewed the other side.
A land with no war, a place with no pain,
where tears are unnecessary and there is no shame.
A place where peace reigns, love, and respect dominate the plain.
I am peace.

SUMMARY

INSPIRATIONS BY LARRY

Inspirations by Larry are a collection of challenging tests I had to face. God guided me with words, dreams, and visions in order to live, and preserve my life. I had to learn how to understand and adjust to issues that we all face as men and women. I am a Christian and the son of the late Evangelist Ethel Bernice Reeves. She taught me that no matter what you face in life, trust God. No matter how life challenges you, always keep your faith in the heavenly Father. I have taken all the challenges of my life to realize that there were areas in my life that I needed to change and grow, for a better life.

My life was troubled after seeing my mother die of cancer and almost losing my own life seven times within one year. I had been plagued with a double aneurysm, which was the beginning phase of almost losing my life several times. After I had been plagued with a double aneurysm, I had to be rushed into surgery to repair the two ruptured veins in my brain. Immediately after the veins burst, I began to pray and asked Jesus to spare my life, not fully understanding what had taken place at that time. I was very dizzy and could only see electric storms resembling electricity and lightening in my head.

During this year I was also struck with two epileptic seizures that almost cost me my life. Also, my kidneys had failed and returned to normal. I lost weight rapidly and was constantly dizzy and sickly. My weight went from 205 (lbs) down to 166(lbs).

Many people I loved and trusted, including family members, were extremely mean and turned their backs on me. Some of the people who attacked me were people that I had helped when I was healthy and strong. Nonetheless, I continued to trust God for all my needs. I learned that no matter how you feel, God is always on time.

God's hand, mercy, and grace were upon me in an extraordinary way. I constantly thanked God for His love. I was discharged from the hospital after a 30-day stay. When I got out of the hospital I asked my father for help. My father responded in a cold manner and said "I can't help you", as he anticipated my death.

Despite the pain and troubles, I continued to trust in God while encouraging others during this tough process. As I was sick, my family kicked me out of houses and cursed me out. They tried to do so many dirty things to me as I tried to recover. I just kept my faith and ignored the negativity. I focused on working for recovery and kept trusting God. The devil had attacked me with so much torment and afflictions. I have been very grateful and thankful for God's hedge of protection covering me.

Through it all, God's mercy continued to be upon me. The trials God has brought me through have been remarkable. I have taken all the great lessons of God and put them into a Website. This is a Website of information and inspiration for all of God's children. www.inspirationsbylarry.com is a Website where we all can learn and grow. Where we can acknowledge how merciful God is.

I hope this information changes your life. In addition, I hope that it opens up your heart to understanding. Your faith and trust in the one and only true God will take you to the next level of peace. I hope that you are blessed by this message of faith, trust, change, and understanding. Please feel free to leave a comment on the webpage at the bottom. Your comment can testify on how this testimony has helped you understand and look at life from a different perspective. Thanks again.

THE LATE GREAT EVANGELIST

ETHEL BERNICE REEVES

2/05/1952 - 11/14/2010

Ethel Bernice Reeves was born in Orville, Alabama, near Selma, on February 5, 1952. Her parents were Eliza Reeves and Van Green. She was the 13th of 14 children born to her parents. Ethel attended Hudson High School in Selma, Alabama.

In October of 1968 at age 16 Ethel, along with her young daughter Cassandra, moved to Boston, Massachusetts. She obtained her Switchboard Operators certificate from OIC in Roxbury and worked at various hospitals in the Boston area including New England Baptist Hospital, Boston Children's Hospital and Brigham and Women's Hospital. Ethel also obtained her Paralegal Certificate from Blackstone School of Law. Although Ethel has an extensive work history, her title of choice is Evangelist. She was baptized for a second time in her adulthood in 1987 after joining Straight Gate Apostolic Church in Dorchester.

Ethel loved the Lord and everyone who knew her could depend on getting good food and prayer from her. She would feed you spiritually and physically. She devoted her entire life to loving and nurturing her five children, grandchildren, and others, always giving the Word of God to everyone and strengthening their faith.

One of her proudest accomplishments was working for Trinity Broadcasting Network as a Prayer Warrior in Atlanta, Georgia. She spoke with numerous individuals and encouraged them with the Word of God. By God's grace, Ethel even stopped someone from committing suicide just by talking to them over the phone. Yes, she was special!

Although Mom had humble beginnings coming from poverty and the cotton fields of Alabama, she was rich in so many ways. Her spiritual insight, words of wisdom, and her ability, by the Holy Spirit, to understand and teach the Word of God rivaled and surpassed some of the most educated scholars.

She found true joy in talking to people about the Word of God. She has made an impact in many people's lives for the Kingdom of God, and she will be missed dearly.
